What is body language??

Is the way your body communicates without using words

Body language is important especially since body language is not felt by its owner, but by those around him.

First: the hand signals

Hand signals and gestures help us get the message we want to say

Second: facial expressions

Happiness

Confusion

Sadness

Surprise

Anger

Excitement

facial expressions make the listener aware of your feelings and the message you want to convey.

Smiling when speaking is a good way to express your gratitude.

learning body language is very important, because it will make you more polite and kind.
